

2011-12 Guild Challenge

Committee

Marsha Bray, Tracy Back, Dolly King

Theme: "What Tickers My Fancy" — Make a quilt inspired by your favorite thing or things. You may use traditional techniques, art quilt techniques or anything that tickles your fancy as long as the finished product meets the following three rules.

Rules:

1. The quilt must be a rectangular quilt between 38-42" in length and 38-42" in width.
2. It must be a finished quilt with top, batting and backing.
3. It must be appropriate to the theme.

Schedule:

- September 27, 2011— Challenge quilts must be completed and the form and picture submitted to the committee.
- October 25, 2011— Challenge quilts will be exhibited at the October Bits meetings. Members vote to select the winners and the top eight.
- March 1, 2012— Application submitted to group challenge in Knoxville
- March, 2012— Challenge quilts hang at the Bits show
- July, 2012— Winning quilts are exhibited in Knoxville if application is accepted.
